THE WEEK'S EVENTS

SATURDAY.

Meeting of Le Cercle Français; hostess, Miss Josie Knowles, on the bayshore.

THE LITTLE SCHOOL.

I well remember long ago
That little school that stood
Just where the roadway bends
around
A little patch of wood;
And I remember, too, the bench
Along the inner wall
By which we used to stand and read
"Leaves have their time to fall."

There oft I stood with open book
And half-cabated breath,
To gild with the "Light Brigade"
"Into the jaws of death."
Or surging on o'er hill and dale
With pendulum-like sway
I took the road with Sheridan
For "twenty miles away."

Even now thru all this lapse of time
I still remember well
The sound of Freedom's dying shriek
"As Kosciusko fell."
And pause again to wipe away
The sympathetic tears
For "the soldier of the legion"
That "lay dying in Algiers."

I can still see, just as of old,
The sights of "Watkin's Glen"
Tho thirty years of wandering life
Have passed and gone since then—
Ah, can it be so long ago?
How swift the years have sped
Since, "In his dark, carved, oaken
chair
Old Rudiger sat dead!"

From that old bench I've wandered thru
"Sweet Auburn" many a time,
And heard those far-off "Shandon
bells"
Flying out their joyous chime;
And oft I've paused beside the spring
To drink, then ride away,
While sweet "Maud Muller" mused
and sighed
Till rain fell on the hay.

These joys it gave, yet from that place
"I've searched the wide world o'er
For some secluded spot on earth
Where mortals weep no more;
Some lone and pleasant dell,
Some valley in the west
Where free from toil and pain
The weary soul may rest."

Aye, many a weary day since then,
Thru varying heat and frost,
I've held my "solitary way,"
Lone, wandering but not lost.
For I have still in memory
The little school that stood
Just where the roadway bends
around
A little patch of wood.

Very Bad Cough. Pe-ru-na Stopped It.

DAUGHTER OF MRS. J. M. BROWN.

Mrs. J. M. Brown, Dunnehan, Mo., writes: "My little daughter, three years old, was troubled with a very bad cough which remained after an attack of catarrhal fever, which was a great deal worse at night."

"She would wake up out of her sleep and cough until I feared she could not stand it."

"Nothing that we gave her seemed to do her any good. I then concluded to send for Dr. Hartman's book entitled 'The Ills of Life,' which I promptly received."

"I at the same time commenced giving her Peruna. She has taken one bottle in all, through which she has obtained a complete cure."

"She also since her birth was troubled with indigestion, but since she has taken Peruna she can eat almost any kind of food without any bad results. 'She is now as well and happy as any little girl can be. When our friends say how well she looks, I tell them Peruna did it.'"

"I shall always be a friend of Peruna, as I consider it the best medicine for coughs and indigestion we have ever tried, and will recommend it to any one similarly afflicted."

Mrs. J. M. Brown, Dunnehan, Mo., writes that they are never without Peruna in the home, that they find it the finest family remedy they have ever used.

NURSE SAYS HER DAUGHTER

Received Great Benefit From the Use of Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, and She Recommends It to Young and Old.

South Bellingham, Wash.—"I am a nurse," writes Mrs. Clara Dykstra of this place, "and have had some experience with Cardui, so I know that it will benefit both young and old people."

"My daughter has used Cardui, and has received great benefit. I think it is excellent for young ladies, as it tones up the system and makes young and old feel like new persons."

Cardui goes to the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the nervous, tired, irritable people, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their restless nerves, and strengthen their worn-out system.

At such times, many people take a stimulant, but this is wrong, as the after-effects are generally worse than the first symptoms.

No, the right thing to do, is to take a gentle, non-intoxicating, reliable tonic, and the tonic for women is Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Thousands of women now enjoy good health, as a result of taking Cardui. Why not you? Try it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

DR. CALDWELL WILL SPEAK.

Douglas, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Miss Spencer, and Miss Holland, of Fort Barrancas, Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mrs. W. K. Hyer, Mrs. Marion Hyer, Mrs. J. Simpson Reese, Mrs. Thomas Brent, Mrs. C. W. ### CONCERNING MISS OLGA WHITE.

Miss Olga White, who has spent the winter looking after a land claim, visiting relatives and giving recitals in Texas, returned home last Tuesday afternoon. The following excerpts are from the Temple (Tex.) Telegram and Evening Record.

"Since her recital given at the Carnegie auditorium last Friday night, Miss Olga White has been the recipient of many compliments on her ability as a reader. She is an impersonator and character delineator of unusual attainments, and supplemented by a charming personality, she infuses into her work a magnetism that is irresistible. Her large audience was entirely sympathetic and appreciative and another recital at an early date is eagerly hoped for."—Temple Evening Record.

"A detailed account of the home talent recital at the Carnegie Library on Thursday evening cannot be given for the reason that no program of the event reached the desk of the society editor, but so often has word come of the success of the affair as a pleasure giving medium it cannot with justice be overlooked in recounting the week's affairs."

Under the direct supervision and as a result of the efforts of Mesdames L. H. Clay, C. B. Hutchinson and R. P. Shuler, representing the Woman's Home Mission Society, the occasion developed. Miss Olga White, of Pensacola, Fla., recent graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory, was the reader of the evening and a real artist she proved to be, delighting her audience with her every appearance, and receiving flattering encore.

Of musical numbers there were several, each most pleasing, though the committees wishes especial thanks to be extended to Prof. Thomas Salkeld, not only for his masterly renditions of the evening, but for his efforts of assistance in other ways toward the success of the occasion.

That it was the zenith of amateur performance of its kind was the opinion of all who have been heard and the Woman's Home Mission Society is to be congratulated both for having so happily diverted from the usual routine and for the coin return which the evening brought.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

For hard-working persons, especially brain workers, an excellent health preserver is the habit of passing a half-hour lying prone in the middle of the day; best if combined with recreation and fresh air.

A dry shampoo is made by scenting a quart of finely ground corn meal with an ounce of powdered orris root. The mixture is scattered through the hair and thoroughly brushed out, bringing the oil and dust with it.

Don't consider it an economy to put children's feet into last summer's outgrown stockings. Short feet in stockings may deprive the child of grace and may even do the foot an injury that will require years of expensive shoes to counteract.

People whose feet perspire excessively both in summer and winter are very likely to be afflicted with soft corns, and they will do well to put an astringent into the water of the nightly bath. For this alum in the proportion of one ounce to a gallon of water is excellent if the feet are soaked for ten minutes, wiping being done in a careful manner. Then night and morning there should be dusted over a good powder.

The old saw of the crowing hen and a whistling girl coming to a bad end has been exploded by a famous physician, who is recommending whistling as an exercise for his nervous female patients. The same physician said that any woman who could stand erect with head well up in the air and eyes closed and then while she was perfectly normal as far as her nerves were concerned, "You learn to breathe properly when you whistle," he said, "and you ac-

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of illness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the only remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is, therefore, all-important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to purchase and note that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

It is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and assists in overcoming habitual constipation permanently, also biliousness and the many ills resulting therefrom. The great trouble with all other purgatives and aperients is not that they fail to act when a single dose is taken, but that they act too violently and invariably tend to produce a habit of body requiring constantly augmented doses. Children enjoy the pleasant taste and gentle action of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the ladies find it delightful and beneficial whenever a laxative remedy is needed, and business men pronounce it invaluable, as it may be taken without interfering with business and does not gripe nor nauseate. When buying note the name, California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of every package. Price, 50 cents a bottle.

TO ERADICATE TICK.

Jackson, Miss., April 29.—That it is possible to eradicate the cattle tick and revive the industry of cattle raising in Mississippi is the confident assertion made by the state live stock board which met in Jackson last night and mapped out a campaign of attack on the pest. A fund of $40,000 has been placed at the disposal of the board to be spent in the next two years. Because of the cattle tick, the entire state, except three counties, is subject to a federal quarantine.
